12. Competition Rules and Related Regulations:

- (1) The competitions shall be conducted according to the rules of soft tennis approved by the ISTF, based on the constitution and regulations of the ISTF.
- (2) The official language for this event shall be English.

13. Competition Methods and Decision of Ranking:

The competition methods shall be decided by the ASTF depending on the number of entries by event in principal. However, the competitions shall be conducted basically by the methods as follows:

(Individual Events)

- (1) A tournament system shall be applied for men's and women's singles mixed doubles, and men's and women's doubles matches.
- (2) Classification matches aren't held.
- (3) A doubles match shall be decided by the best of nine (9) games system and a singles match by the best of seven (7) games.

(Team Events)

- (1) A tournament system shall be applied in men and women competition.
- (2) In both men and women competitions, a tie shall be completed in the order of (1)doubles - (2)singles - (3)doubles, totaling three(3) matches. The team, when it has won two (2) matches in a tie, shall be the winner of the tie, and the remaining one match shall not be played. However, 3 matches shall be played at the occasion of first tie of each team.
- (3) Consolation matches may be played by loser teams. The details of the consolation matches shall be decided by ASTF, depending on the number of participants.
- (4) The matches in a tie shall be played by the players in the order which is to be submitted prior to the competition. A player shall be limited to play only one match in a tie. Accordingly, any team with only three (3) or four (4) players cannot play all of the three matches in a tie, i.e. the third match default will inevitably be incurred.
- (5) Participating Countries can't make change the order which is to be submitted prior to the competition. A change of players and/or order of players to complete in a tie shall be allowed for each tie. The substitute players must be those who are registered for the event.
- (6) A doubles match shall be played by the best of nine (9) games and a singles match by the best of seven (7) games.
